Mr. Bojangles

Robbie Williams

I knew a man Bojangles And he'd dance for you In worn out shoes

With silver hair a ragged shirt And baggy pants He would do the old soft shoe

He would jump so high Jump so high Then he lightly touch down

He told me of the time he worked with Minstrel shows travelling Throughout the south

He spoke with tears of fifteen years How his dog and he They would travel about.

But his dog up and died He up and died And after twenty years he still grieved

He said I dance now
At every chance in the Honky Tonks
For my drinks and tips

But most the time I spend Behind these country bars You see on I drinks a bit

Then he shook his head
Oh lord when he shook his head
I could swear I heard someone say please

Mister Bojangles Call him Mister Bojangles Mister Bojangles come back and dance please

Come back and dance again Mr Bojangles
