Work Song

Robert Calvert

You work all night And it's really frightening 'Cause you're so ambitious

It's just a habit That you have to grab it You're avaricious

I know you'll make it But I just can't take it You're so ambitious

Nothing's ever going to make you stop Not even when you've made it to the top

You're a workaholic It's so hyperbolic You're so ambitious

You're so ambitious You're so ambitious For the road

You're a finance wizard A Stock Exchange lizard 'Cause you're so ambitious

Always talking deals Turning cogs and wheels You're so ambitious

What has happened to the girl I knew? When you're rich and famous you'll just say we're through

You want a Rolls-Royce motor And an eighty-foot boat, oh You're so ambitious

Your satisfaction Is a new transaction 'Cause you're so ambitious

Your excitation Is negotiation 'Cause you're so ambitious

You want a house that's Georgian And ahead you're forgin' You're so ambitious

Nothing's ever going to make you stop Not even when you've made it to the top

You're so ambitious Am-ambitious You've got a pinstriped suit A polka-dot computer You're so ambitious

Your calculator It says "see you later" Its voice sounds vicious

I know you'll make it But I just can't take it You're so ambitious

Nothing's ever going to make you stop Not even when you've made it to the top
