

I Don't Care

Robert Cray

Now what's the difference in rain or sunshine
With a broken heart?
Now who cares about winter or summer
When your soul's torn apart?

I don't care if the sun don't shine no more
I don't care if the world falls off the globe

That girl of mine confound my soul
She upped and left this morning
And shook all of her clothes and that's why

I don't care if the sun don't shine no more
I don't care if the world falls off the globe

She was my bread and water
In my time of thirst
My lawyer, my doctor, my everything lord
Anytime it hurts

I don't care if the sun don't shine no more
I don't care if the world falls off the globe

She even took the picture
I had hanging on the family tree
She took off the ring I bought and put it in the dressing drawer and that's why

I don't care if the sun don't shine no more
I don't care if the world falls off the globe

I don't care
(I don't care)
If the sun refuse to shine
(I don't care)
I don't care
(I don't care)
If the moon don't come out at night
(I don't care)

She wrote me a letter
Left on the side of the bed
The only line I had to read
Was "Here's your door key, I don't need it!"

I don't care if the sun don't shine no more
I don't care if the world falls off the globe

I don't care
(I don't care)
If the sun don't come out today
(I don't care)
I don't care
(I don't care)
If the moon don't come out tonight
(I don't care)
I don't care

(I don't care)
I don't care
(I don't care)
