

Anniversary

Robert Plant

What is this land, that I have found
There is silence all around
It's the anniversary

Feel the fear and sad decree
Keeps my fragile heart at beat
On the anniversary

Through these dark and lonely streets
Drag my ragged grainy feet
It's the anniversary, the anniversary
It's the anniversary

How far is hate away from this
I, reluctant, feel your kiss
On the anniversary, the anniversary
The anniversary

Don't want to feel your kiss no more
