Anniversary

Robert Plant

What is this land, that I have found There is silence all around It's the anniversary

Feel the fear and sad decree Keeps my fragile heart at beat On the anniversary

Through these dark and lonely streets Drag my ragged grainy feet It's the anniversary, the anniversary It's the anniversary

How far is hate away from this I, reluctant, feel your kiss On the anniversary, the anniversary The anniversary

Don't want to feel your kiss no more
