

Falling in Love Again

Robert Plant

I'm falling in love again
I'm falling in love again
It might break my heart
It might even tear it apart
But I'm falling in love again
Yes I am and listen, honey

I'm thinking of no one but you every day
I'm thinking of no one but you
I think of you all the time
Oh darling please be mine
I'm falling in love again
Yes I am and listen

This is what love will do for you
It will make you cry sometimes
It will make you walk and don't know where you're going

It will make my heart feel burnin'
And I don't know for certain
Just why it's happening this way
But I promised myself a long time ago
But it never happened to me
I'm falling in love again
Yes I am and listen

I hope you don't break my heart no more
I hope you don't break my heart
Say you love me all the time
Oh darling you'll always be mine
And I'm falling in love again, yes I am
I am falling in love again
Sometimes I have to walk the floor
But I'm falling in love again
Sometimes my heart...
