

Earth Angel

Robin Gibb

Oh baby, mmm.

Oh baby.

Girl, where did you come from?
If heaven is the place then can I go?
I'm feeling you just for me,
My earth angel.

Girl, where did you come from?
If heaven is the place then can I go?
I'm feeling you just for me,
My earth angel.

I saw you standing there on a sunny day,
Feeding all the birds as the children played.
Had my heart beating, sweat racing,
Had me losing my mind.

You made me stand up straight,
Get my act together,
Find the words to say
And not scare you away.
Only question that I have
Is where you've been hiding.

Girl, where did you come from?
If heaven is the place then can I go?
I'm feeling you just for me,
My earth angel.

Girl, where did you come from?
If heaven is the place then can I go?
I'm feeling you just for me,
My earth angel.

If I wasn't awake,
I would think I was dreaming.
You're the kind of girl
Only heaven would imagine.
Classy, no nonsense,
Soft as a cloud after the rain.

Just like a rose, girl,
Your beauty is supreme.
Like a cool glass of water
On a summer's heat.
You're refreshing, tasty.
I know the good lord sent you to me.

Girl, where did you come from?
If heaven is the place then can I go?
I'm feeling you just for me,
My earth angel.

Girl, where did you come from?
If heaven is the place then can I go?
I'm feeling you just for me,

My earth angel.

Did I imagine you girl, or are you real?
You got me in a daze,
Spinning around like a top.
I don't know who you are baby,
But I'm glad that you're here now.
You can be the one
To take me my freedom away.

Girl, where did you come from?
If heaven is the place then can I go?
I'm feeling you just for me,
My earth angel.

Girl, where did you come from?
If heaven is the place then can I go?
I'm feeling you just for me,
My earth angel.

Girl, where did you come from?
If heaven is the place then can I go?
I'm feeling you just for me,
My earth angel.
