

Hearts On Fire

Robin Gibb

The evening stars, shine on me
The subway noises haunt silent street
The amber skies, the shadowed walls
They lose their meaning, when twilight falls

I'm in heaven, I can't go anywhere
I control two hearts on fire
Over and over
Can't you hear me calling
My love is alive

The silver streams of city lights
Reach out their arms to cut down the night
And so you see, it's not a dream
I've got my woman to satisfy me

I'm in heaven, I can't go anywhere
I control two hearts on fire
Over and over
Can't you hear me calling
My love is alive

I'm in heaven, I can't go anywhere
I control two hearts on fire
Over and over
Can't you hear me calling
My love is alive.
