

King Of Fools

Robin Gibb

Alright, I don't mind, having fun is my pre-occupation
I don't mind givin' it all away, oh baby
Alright, the love you had has gone away (alright) alright (alright)
Slow down, you'll live to love another day (alright) alright (alright)

A-ha king of fools, don't live by the golden rules
A-ha king of fools tonight, tonight

Alright, love is blind and people say that love is an illusion
I don't mind givin' it all away, oh baby
Alright, the love you had has gone away (alright) alright (alright)
Slow down, you'll live to love another day (alright) alright (alright)

Time out for the king of fools
Step right up for the king of fools
A-ha king of fools, don't live by the golden rules
Ah-ha king of fools tonight, tonight

A-ha prince of nights, just lives for the new york lights
A-ha king of fools tonight, tonight

A-ha king of fools, don't live by the golden rules
A-ha king of fools tonight, tonight
A-ha prince of nights, just lives for the new york lights
A-ha king of fools tonight, tonight
Ah-ha king of fools, don't live by the golden rules
A-ha king of fools tonight, tonight
