

Possession

Robin Gibb

All I need in my life
Just one love I can count on tonight
In the dark, oh
Am I crazy to think we belong

It's possession
Oh baby, possession
Possession
Baby, what I wouldn't give for possession
Oh baby, possession
Sweet obsession
Baby I'd lay down my life

I can't fake masquerades
Your disguises just make me afraid
Yesterday, oh
I was facing a future alone, oh

It's possession
Oh baby, possession
Possession

You know I would sell you my soul for possession
Oh baby, possession
Sweet confession
You know I would lay down my life

Oh what I'd do for possession
You know I'd break every rule in the book
Ooh what I'd do for an answer from you today
When I'd pay any price for you
Twenty-four hours a day
Possession
It's crazy what people will do for possession

Oh baby, possession
Sweet obsession
You know I would lay down my life for possession
Oh baby, possession
Sweet confession
You know I would sell you my soul for possession
Oh baby, possession
Sweet obsession
