Mmm yeah ahh ohh
Mmm yeah ahh ohh

I heard that it existed,
But I never thought that it'd be my destiny
To fall for one so deeply, alright.

Girl, you are a blessing,
So I'm treading oh very carefully
Just to see you there is enough for me.
Ah.

There you go, so precious,
So graceful, baby. I surrender.
You love me perfectly,
You're loving me.

Others may come,
I ain't searching for no one.
You are my very own angel here with me.
Oh baby.

I've always tried to stop myself from falling victim of love.
Only brings you pain.
For some reason now
I'm not afraid, oh no, no.

You showed me the love to be embraced,
To accept it and don't run away.
Girl, it's so easy with you here by my side.
Let you inside.
You're my world and my pride.

There you go, so precious,
So graceful, baby. I surrender.
You love me perfectly,
Perfectly, oh baby.

Others may come,
I ain't searching for no one
No one, yeah.
You are my very own angel here with me.
Oh yeah.

I'm so grateful for what God has done,
Created my one and only,
Someone, someone.
And you're like a miracle,
A guiding light for me.

So I'm here explaining
Just how special you are to me,
Ah girl

There you go, so precious,
So graceful, baby. I surrender.
You love me perfectly,

You're loving me.

Others may come,
I ain't searching for no one.
You are my very own angel here with me.
Oh yeah.
