

Wish You Were Here

Robin Gibb

Yeah, yeah

You're living your life
In somebody else's heart.
I'm hurting so deep
As oceans are far apart.
I never let you down,
You were my world, you kept it turning.

They were good times,
And I wish you were here,
Yes, I wish you were here tonight.
They were good times,
I wish you were here tonight, tomorrow.
Oh yeah, oh yeah.

And so I awake in somebody else's dream.
It's only a lie, I've yet to decide who's real, oh.
You were my universe,
You were the flame that kept on burning.

They were good times,
And I wish you were here,
Yes, I wish you were here tonight.
They were good times,
I wish you were here tonight, tomorrow, oh no.

And right or wrong, oh yeah,
We were so strong together.
You were the only one I lived for,
You were the one I lived for.

They were good times,
And I wish you were here,
Yes, I wish you were here.

And I'm missing you,
And I'm missing you,
And I'm missing you tonight.

You were the flame that kept on burning,
And no one knows that I can't live without you.
They were good times when we were together.
You were the love. You are all that I live for.

And I'm missing you...
