

Cry No More

Robin Thicke

I met the joker
And I stole the moon
I raise the sunshine
And I have been the fool
And I have been laughed at
And I have been lied to
And I have been left alone and nowhere since

I don't cry, I don't cry no more
Girl I know you want this
So I don't try, I don't try no more
Girl I know you want this
So I don't lie, I don't lie no more
Girl I know you want this
So I don't cry no more

I took the picture
I faced the truth
I lived a lifetime, a lifetime with you
Now I watch you fall asleep smiling
And I lie awake
But there's only so much the woman can take

Ooo so I don't cry, I don't cry no more
Girl I know you want this
So I don't try, I don't try no more
Girl I know you want this
So I don't lie, I don't lie no more
Girl I know you want this
So I don't cry no more

Oooooooooo
Oooooooooooooo

And I am a hero
I'm not made of steel
And I'm not the smartest man
But I know the deal
And I'll bleed for your lips
If you'll bleed for mine
And I can't escape it
Cause I do love you

Ooo so I don't cry, I don't cry no more
Girl I know you want this
So I don't try, I don't try no more
Girl I know you want this
So I don't lie, I don't lie no more
Girl I know you want this
So I don't cry no more

Oooooooooo

Girl I know you want this
So I don't cry, I don't cry no more
Girl I know you want this

So I don't cry no more
