

Dangerous

Robin Thicke

I'm dangerous so dangerous
I'm dangerous, you better stay away
Stay away from me, I'm dangerous
I'm dangerous, so dangerous
You're a lone hitch hiker
And I'm a traveling truck
You better not get on this ride
You might lose your luck
I'm dangerous

You better heed the signs
The skull and cross bone nights
Stops lights in use
I'm slippery when wild
Cautions and red flags
I'm gonna cross that line
I'm dangerous

So don't you
Don't you say maybe
Baby I'm crazy
Crazy for wanting
Wanting you badly
Madly I'm serious
And you're so curious
But I'm too dangerous (dangerous)

You better not kiss me once
You better not fall in love
I'm a pterodactyl
And you're a wondering duck
I don't mean to be greedy
But it's never enough
I'm dangerous

I'll tell you I love you
And I'll believe it's true
Oh and then I'll do something
So bad to you
And you'll say I hate you
And you'll be screaming in a dream
Where no one can hear you

So don't you
Don't you say maybe
Baby I'm crazy
Crazy for wanting
Wanting you badly
Madly I'm serious
And you're so curious

You're idealistic
So filled with glee
You see me as your shining prince
But I'm a treacherous king
You'll accept my olive branch

But I'm poison iiiiiivvvyyyy

I'm dangerous, so dangerous
you better say away
Stay away from me

So da da da da da
da da da da da da
