

Ev'ry Body's Watching You Now

Robin Trower

There's a blood red vision
In the sunset sky
A time for big decision
A time to testify, oh yeah!

When you're tired of losing
When the well runs dry
When it comes to choosing
Tell me why why why

No time for running, hiding
No backsliding
You can't take something for nothing, oh no
Ev'ry body's watching you now

When the light is falling
On the twisted tree
When the voodoo's calling
You'll remember me

No time for running, hiding
No backsliding
You can't take something for nothing, oh no
Ev'ry body's watching you now

Yeah, yeah - they're watching you
Yeah, yeah - ev'ry body's watching
Ev'ry body's watching you now

No time for running, hiding
No backsliding
You can't take something for nothing, oh no
Ev'ry body's watching you now
