

Love's Gonna Bring You Round

Robin Trower

Love's gonna bring you round
Turn you round in your thinking
Turn you upside down
Love's gonna, love's gonna
Love's gonna bring you round

Love's gonna melt your cold, cold heart
The fire's gonna burn you
Tear your soul apart
Love's gonna, love's gonna
Love's gonna bring you round

Oh baby take a look at yourself
Forget about that man
He put you back on the shelf
You'd better start believin' girl
In somebody else
'Cause love's gonna bring you round

Love's gonna make you cry. cry, cry
Turn you round in your thinking
And you won't know why
Love's gonna, love's gonna
Love's gonna bring you round

Hey baby take a look and you'll find
You got to realize
You're the next fool in line
Ain't no use hidin'
Keepin' close to the ground
'Cause love's gonna bring you round

Love's gonna bring you round
Turn you round in your thinking
Turn you upside down
Love's gonna, love's gonna
Love's gonna bring you down

Oh baby take a look at yourself
Forget about that man
He put you back on the shelf
You'd better start believin' girl
In somebody else
'Cause love's gonna bring you round
