

Sea Of Love

Robin Trower

I could brave the storm
Hold on to the guiding light
With you by my side
And your arms around me tight

We could fall into ecstasy
Somewhere beyond the night
And drown beneath the waves
Of our own love
Drown in a sea of love

Drown in a sea of love
Drown yeah
Drown in a sea of love
Drown yeah

Let the world go on
Let it glow in its own light
We know that we belong
Together now and for all time

We will be swept away
Far from our conscious mind
To drown beneath the waves
Of our own love
Drown in a sea of love

Drown in a sea of love
Drown yeah
Drown in a sea of love
Drown yeah

We could fall...
Drown in a sea of love
Drown yeah
Drown in a sea of love
Drown yeah
