

Shame The Devil

Robin Trower

There's a time for livin'
And a time for love
There's a time for forgiving y'all
And a time to shove
There's more won than lost
More hoping you to spare

And it's waitin', waitin'
Don't you spend your whole life hesitatin'
Come and tell the truth
Shame the devil

There's more light than dark
Honey, shine down on you[Incomprehensible]
And baby you'll need the truth
This whole world has had enough
Of people giving up, yeah

And it's waitin', waitin'
Don't you spend your whole life hesitatin'
Come on, tell the truth
Shame the devil

And it's waitin', waitin'
Don't spend your whole life hesitatin'
Come on, tell the truth
Shame the devil

But don't you know that it's waitin', ample waitin'
Don't you spend your whole life hesitatin'
Come on, let loose
Shame the devil
