

Shattered

Robin Trower

I was lost in the desert
Outrun by my past
I cried and the God's took pleasure
When I stumbled they laughed
Looked like my life was shattered
Pick it up let it fall
There was a time it mattered
Now I just don't care at all

I woke up feeling desolate
Tried hard to understand
I asked her for some water
She filled my mouth with sand
Looked like my life was shattered
Pick it up let it fall
There was a time it mattered
Now I just don't care at all
Shattered, Baby I'm shattered

I was walking in my sleep
My hands and feet were tied
The night was in so deep
I could not tell she lied
Looked like my life was shattered
Pick it up let it fall
There was a time it mattered
Now I just don't care at all
Shattered, Baby I'm shattered
Shattered, Baby I'm shattered
