

Someday Blues

Robin Trower

If you don't wanna take my life
Then baby don't ask me to set you free
I know I can't stand to lose you
And I can't blame no-one but me
But if you think about the past
Maybe you will come back to me someday

I'll prove that I can change my ways
Change the way I've treated you
It's taken so long to find out
An' now you have the right to choose
But if you think about the past
Maybe you'll come back to me someday
