Sometimes a bomb is not enough To express the way I feel And an explosion in the dark Won't let you down Sometimes a kiss is not enough You just have to make it two Kissing I love you inside out and upside down Darling I love you inside out And upside down I love you Like a bomb In my heart Sometimes a kiss goes on so long And it just won't let you go Darling I love you inside out And upside down I love you Like a bomb In my heart Daisy bomb Daisy bomb Daisy bomb
