

Everybody Needs Love

Robyn Hitchcock

Some people are mad
One listen and you can tell why they're sad
Some people are lost
They wake up covered in foil and permafrost
But everybody needs love
Some people are maimed
They're not as worth it as the label on 'em claims
But everybody needs love
Yes, everybody needs love
Some people were meant
They're angry and they wonder why they've got no friends
No friends at all
But everybody needs love
Yes, everybody needs love
(Here it comes)
Love...
Love...
Love...
Some people are straight
Don't lean too hard on them or think they're a gate
Some people are nice
Lean even less hard on them and always take their advice
But everybody needs love
Yes, everybody needs love
Yes, everybody needs love