I'm Only You

Robyn Hitchcock

Said I'm a willow bending in your mind I'm a mirror cracked from side to side I'm a snow-covered mountain In an empty room I'm a house that burns down Every night for you

Said I'm a doorway leading to the dark I'm a liquid you're dissolving in I'm a policeman working In an empty house I'm a distant steeple On a long-deserted plain

Sometimes when I'm lonely, Baby, then I'm only you

Said I'm a pattern on a china bowl I'm a memory engraved upon your soul I'm a prison cell without a door I'm a finger drawing On a frosty window pane

Sometimes when I'm lonely, Baby, then I'm only you Sometimes when I'm lonely, Baby, then I'm only you
