

The Wreck Of The Arthur Lee

Robyn Hitchcock

The wreck of the Arthur Lee
Will never return again
Never return again
The captain and all his men
Went up and jumped overboard
"Jesus is Lord," they cried
Believe in love!
Believe in love
And I'll believe in you
The missing Avenger planes
Will never return to base-don't you wait up for them
How often have you boys said
"I ain't gonna bump no more."
"We ain't gonna bump no more."
Believe in love! Believe in love!
And I'll believe if you'll believe in me
I got home
There was nobody there
Just the phone
Let it ring in the air
But it's home
The wreck of the Arthur Lee
Will never return again
Never return again
