

O Baby

Robyn

Ooh baby
you makin' that mistake again, oh why ooh, don't you understand that everytime you do you make me cry

I see those tears and it hurts so much each time you say you're sorry cause no more words or regretful touch could change the way I'm feeling you're doing me wrong

again and again
you say that you will
but you won't

Ooh baby
you're making that mistake again, oh why

I stayed up late every lonely night waiting for you to call me I used to think if I gave you time oh baby, you find a way to make it right you're doin' me wrong

again and again

Ooh baby
you're makin' that mistake again, oh why

Oh why..

don't explain and don't ask me why oh baby, please stop crying we've been through this one too many times so baby, don't you put me there again cause no matter how hard I try to believe this time I know that I won't no I won't baby

you're makin' a mistake again, oh why

Ooh baby
ooh, I don't understand

Oh why...

don't wonder why
baby, don't cry
let's say goodbye
