

Universal Woman

Robyn

She needs a place to rest her broken soul
Longs for a place where love is good
Her passion for him made her heart bold
She sacrificed her womanhood
Love made her brave but oh so honourable
But still she keeps on holding on

Some say she's weak I say she's beautiful
Her weakness proves that she's strong

She's a universal woman
and she lives inside of you
She's a universal woman
and love is all that she can do

She lost her spirit when she lost her child to what society demands and all the children in the mother cried Cause nature cannot understand
But everytime she dies she's born again
True love just never goes away
Just like her sacrifice is not in vain

She's a universal woman
and she lives inside of you
She's a universal woman
and love is all that she can do

She needs a place to rest her broken soul
Longs for a place where love is good
Her passion for him made her heart bold
She sacrificed her womanhood
Love made her brave but oh so honourable
But still she keeps on holding on

Some say she's weak I say she's beautiful
Her weakness proves that she's strong

and she lives inside of you
She's a universal woman
and love is all that she can do
