

For Adam's Sake

Roch Voisine

My name is Adam
And I'm three years old
My mommy's been very tired
My daddy's told me so
He said she couldn't tell
Any lies no more
She couldn't live with us
She had to search out for more
I just haven't got a clue
What he means
I only want my own Mom back
Please!

For Adam's sake
People try to understand
Break up the fight and lay a hand
Save up a world for the little man
For Adam's sake
People it's time to turn around
Pick up that child you left behind
Your crazy war has struck him down
My name is Adam
I'm a brand new soul
I'm way too young for this
I can only count the blows
Right here in the cross fire
Lately it's been up and down
I follow the moods and the tides
I wear their anger like a crown
Give me some time
I'll be fine, I'll be strong
But don't come and tell me
All is fine, nothing's wrong ...

Don't let him down
Don't let him down
Don't let him down
Don't let him down
