

Miracle

Rock Kills Kid

Nothing is right, everything's wrong now
Where do I go this time?
What do I try, no, I don't belong now
Where do I go?

I need some kind of miracle
Someone to let me know
That they won't let go

I'm dying inside, I've got to be strong now
Where do I go this time?
I try to deny that everything's wrong now
Where do I go?

I need some kind of miracle
Someone to let me know
That they won't let go
While I lie awake at night
I want to see the light, a miracle

I'll bury it all
Deep inside myself, I'll hold it in
I'll be keeping the dark
Keep you far away, you won't get in

I feel that nothing is right
'Cause everything's wrong
Where do I go this time
Oh, where do I go, where do I go?

I need some kind of miracle
Someone to let me know
That they won't let go
While I lie awake at night
I want to see the light, a miracle

While I lie awake at night
I want to see the light
Some kind of miracle, yeah
While I lie awake at night
I want to see the light
