Tears

So when were you planning to tell me? When did you know it for sure That you didn't want my love That you didn't need me anymore?

Did you promise to love her forever? Did you tell her how happy she wouldn't be? Did she believe all the lies? Did you tell her about me?

Tears are all that she has now Now that she has you You're gonna feel the pain someday When it comes back to you

Will you remember tomorrow How we sleep tonight? Knowing how you hurt That what you're doing isn't right

Are you leading her on with your kisses And words of what could be? Leaving a flower so She could fall for all to see

Tears are all that she has now Now that she has you You're gonna feel the pain someday When it comes back to you

Tears are all that she has now Now that she has you You're gonna feel the pain someday When it comes back to you

The tears, the tears are falling But your time I know is coming What you do today Will come back and you will see What it feels to be in tears

The tears, the tears are falling But your time I know is coming What you do today Will come back and you will see What it feels to be in tears

Tears are all that she has now Now that she has you You're gonna feel the pain someday When it comes back to you

Tears are all that she has now Now that she has you You're gonna feel the pain someday When it comes back to you
