

Break It Up

Rocket from the Crypt

When you feel let down
And the flower's turnin' brown
Break it up, yeah
(Break it up, yeah)

You're a fool but not be cruel for
What you're gonna do

If it's an old man or young boy
You're hangin' out with other guys
I'm no fool, I'll never be true to you

If it's an old man or young boy
You're hangin' out with other guys
I'm no fool, I'll never be true to you

Break it up, break it up, yeah
Break it up, break it up, yeah
Break it up, break it up, yeah

When the slap starts to hurt
And your heart is gonna burst
Break it up, yeah
(Break it up, yeah)

You're a fool to let the cruel
Tell you what to do
Break it up
(Break it up, yeah)

If it's an old man or young boy
You're hangin' out with other guys
I'm no fool, I'll never be true to you

If it's an old man or young boy
You're hangin' out with other guys
I'm no fool, I'll never be true to you

Break it up, break it up, yeah
Break it up, break it up, yeah
Break it up, break it up, yeah
Before you break down

Now you're alone
And there's nothin' worse than home
Break it up, yeah
(Break it up, yeah)

Go back to the chain
'Cause nothing is the same
Break it up, yeah
(Break it up, yeah)

If it's an old man or young boy
You're hangin' out with other guys
I'm no fool, I'll never be true to you

If it's an old man or young boy
You're hangin' out with other guys
I'm no fool, I'll never be true to you

Break it up, break it up, yeah
Break it up, break it up, yeah
Break it up, break it up, yeah

Break it up, break it up, yeah
Break it up, break it up, yeah
Break it up, break it up, yeah
Before you break down
