Rockie Fresh

(Hook)

This is for them girls round the world getting stacks now
Every time we back up, we got turn the racks down
We can do it all night, you ain't gotta back down
We be going hard mama, we don't never back down
You ain't gotta back down, you ain't gotta back down
This is for my girls round the world getting stacks now
Every time we back up, we got turn the racks down

(Verse)

Shot Town nigga, steppin on the scene
Catch me standing tall, I already fucked with lean
I'm known to make em get money, at this for the team
But they still got the message like a answering machine
Shorty I fulfill your dreams, these other dudes sleep
I'm hoping you a freak, you ain't gotta be a creep
And call me up at night, I be getting hella D
Vibratin like my phone if you ever run a beat
I'm working as you working, every day we hustling
Walk up in your party and make sure that bitch is bustin
My chick dig, real shit, no fluffin
I'mma buy it all, custom make it back as nothing

Make a turn in like 2K, oh whatever you play
Hoes get scratch tryna diss er like Bluray
All of that drama, I make her have to chill on it
Tell her if she act right (let go a couple bills on it)
Spend that whole deal on it, she should let me feel on it
Ass so alive I could probably roll my kill on it
And I take er higher, say them other dudes weak
Actin like they money strong but really I have two weak
Sayin that they buyin, but really out here too cheap
Fakin like that cop, Martin Lawrence on blue street
Damn, them nigga tryna mimic how we stuntin
And I smash every morning, guess I'm really up and coming yea
