For whatever may come, cause I'm ready
Born ready, so ready, for whatever may come

[Verse 1:]

I've been waiting for it, staying patient for it
I just can't ignore it, no I can't ignore it
I've been waiting for it, staying patient for it
Nah I can't ignore it, I just can't ignore it
It gets heavy, am I strong enough, it takes time
Is this long enough, cause I'm waiting for it Staying patient for it, I just can't ignore it Nah I just can't ignore it

[Hook]

[Verse 2:]

Could it be a drag or could it be the swag
I couldn't be mad, I live the life that you'll never have Tell me why you act like that cause you ain't getting stacks like that
Yo bitch left your broke ass but you can't get her back like that
Like man why you wanna see a nigga fail
You know they wanna see us dead or in jail
They doing everything just to see the same change
Like boy we gotta change the game
I give a fuck about you lame niggas Y'all don't bang with us, sometimes you can't save niggas
You know the caught in the way niggas
I buy a boat someday, I help 'em close someday
These niggas hope one day, they can't get shit like me
I'm rolling, it's showing it's closed one way
They gon' know someday, they gon' know someday

[Hook]

[Outro:]

I'm ready, I'm ready, I'm ready, way before the watch and chain
Way before they knew my name
I was riding, I was ready, way before the watch and chain
Way before they knew my name
I was ready, I've been ready way before all this fame Way before the cars that came
I was ready for whatever may come
