Shout out that boy 1, that my first son, my first one
What's up to romelo, yeah they say he look just like me
Yeah that boy lil rocko, he a genius, he just like me
Gotta set a good example, they all wanna be just like me
I tell them go hard, work as hard as they can Never say the word can, cause you can
Be whatever you wanna be, look at your dad
Young millionaire, self made entrepreneur
That's why I'm always gone, I'm on the road, I'm on the tour
Everything I do, I do it for you all, you, you
You don't understand how fortunate you are,
Nothing comes before you, you, you
You don't even know, how much I love you

I really care for you, no matter what I'm always there for you, you,
you
I would kill for you, about you, I be there for you, you
I really care for you, no matter what I'm always there for you, you,
you
I be there for you, you, you
I'm here for you

Mama always loved me even though I was her bad son Salute to my grandma, she was right there when my dad went
My aunties always stay true, even when they knew I was dead wrong
And the time you need me, then I hesitate to pick up that phone
One time for my sisters, know I'll see you know I miss you
My nephew and my nieces, know your uncle love you to pieces
Shout out to my bm, she lay down, she gave me 2 kids
I'm always there for her, I don't give no fuck
I don't care who she with, you, you
I'm always there for you, you, you
No matter what, I be right there for you
All of my supporters who support me swear I love you
I swear I do this for you, wouldn't be here waiting for you

I really care for you, no matter what I'm always there for you, you,
you
I would kill for you, about you, I be there for you, you
I really care for you, no matter what I'm always there for you, you,
you
I be there for you, you, you
I'm here for you.
