

YU And I

Rocko

You and I
Truth and lies
I've been fooling myself too long
You and I
Breaking ties
How could we be so right and so wrong

We crossed paths is change that
I met her at the dentist
She a singer I tell her my goal up in the getter
She dig armanis she made a promise
To be the hop that could dare
I pay well dig that there
She gave me her word I gave her my bond
No matter what time I call she come
She ain't gotta ride she run
She wanna tie the knot she is so spiritual
Free spirit piece of paper she ain't trying to hear it
How could I not she sacrifice she lay down on the table
Twice for a nigga gave life for a nigga
How could I downplay that
I'm lying to myself saying I'm a do right
But I'm only lying to myself
Some people say I'm cray some say I'm dumb
So with that dilemma hard I'm numb
Maybe I was wrong, she deserve 50/50
I met the 44 hindsight 20 20

You and I
Truth and lies
I've been fooling myself too long
You and I
Breaking ties
How could we be so right and so wrong

Met her at the tongue and grew my homie J day
Saying 1 2 J1 was the DJ
She barbie when she worked her move I snug her pinky heart
Cute face, nice body check her features off
I could feature her she greeted me I greeted her
Arranged to meet with her she cool piece got my vote for
She voting for me, she with that campaign
Bought her a camera told her capture that campaign
She flirt with me I throw it right back at her boomerang
We're made to be just so happen we do the thing
I let my douche down a lil when out the character
Normally be in and out but somehow I just let it cool it
A conversation break we grooving
Come through watch move it
We ain't going full speed we just cruising
I let her know my dues and don't care if she slipping through Damn baby why the fuck you had to ruin it

You and I
Truth and lies
I've been fooling myself too long
You and I

Breaking ties
How could we be so right and so wrong
