Cut Me In Two

Rocky Votolato

Oh night sweat Sleep it off is exactly what I should do I won't come through, I won't come through Nobody understands this light Just like me sincerity Oh please return to me 'Cause I've been lying to myself, to myself Myself, you see Time will create something that's the truth So it pierces through you, cuts me in two Shows me why I lied to you, why I lied to you To you, I lied to you And part of me, I'll never see But it's gone I must go on
