Instrument

Rocky Votolato

I don't want this Tinsel Glory Or Empty Praise that I can't carry I want no more of this delusion I just want to come back home to you again

Please make me your instrument With eyes inside out I'll never doubt this The fruit will always show where the root is planted I just want to come back home to you again I just want to be free I just want to be free I just want to be free