

Finest Woman

Rod Stewart

The finest woman that I've ever known
The finest woman that I've ever known
Shine a light on this love of mine
The finest woman that I've ever known

My days were lonely and my nights were long
My life was empty and my dreams were long gone
I was hanging with a
My only lover was the red, red wine
I was just about to call a cab to take me home
Standing right there, talking on the á'hone about

The finest woman that I've ever known
The finest woman that I've ever known
Shine a light on this love of mine
The finest woman that I've ever known
Alright

Listen
The finest woman that I've ever known
The finest woman that I've ever known
Shine a light on this love of mine
The finest woman that I've ever known

she does not drink, she does not smoke
I rock her world even though I'm stoned
Alright
She got the beauty, she got the brains
She bring me crackers on a long
Six foot one with a golden heart
. them thighs

The finest woman that I've ever known
The finest woman that I've ever known
Shine a light on this love of mine
The finest woman that I've ever known

The finest woman that I've ever known
The finest woman that I've ever known
Shine a light on this love of mine
The finest woman that I've ever known

The finest woman that I've ever known
The finest woman that I've ever known
Shine a light on this love of mine
The finest woman that I've ever known
