

Love and Be Loved

Rod Stewart

There's a place that I know
Where the ocean is never cold
Happy people in clothes so pride
Where the sun is warm and wide
Oh yeah, oh yeah

Where the pounrty gentle sway
And the sky is never gray
All day long they sing the song
In simple words that roll along

Love and be loved
Oh singing now love and be loved
Love and be loved
Oh singing now love and be loved

On the beach at the coco bar
Little Jimmy, he plays guitar, he says:
"All the riches you can posses
They never bring you happiness"
Oh yeah, oh yeah

So reach out and help the man
Who's neck is down and needs a hand
Cause everything means nothing at all
If your heart is empty and cold

Love and be loved
Oh singing now love and be loved
Love and be loved
Oh singing now love and be loved

In a world divided by indifference
We must teach our children the meaning of commitment
Oh yeah yeah yeah
Oh yeah

Slow down and take your time
Life can change on one slim dime
What you give is what you get
So my friends never forget to

Love and be loved
Oh singing now love and be loved
Love and be loved
Oh singing now love and be loved
Love and be loved
Oh singing now love and be loved
Love and be loved
Oh singing now love and be loved
Love and be loved
Oh singing now love and be loved
