

Time

Rod Stewart

Time waits for no one
That's why can't wait on you
Time waits for no one
That's why can't wait on you

Bittersweet all the memories of you
But I don't suppose you ever felt that way too
It was all I could do just to keep you entertained
But I just another, another link in your chain

Time waits for no one
That's why can't wait on you
Time waits for no one
That's why can't wait on you

Bittersweet all the memories of you
I believed we had a future, constant intrude
And I dreamed of a family and a life we could've shared
But I guess you'll be much better off with me out of your hair

Time waits for no one
That's why can't wait on you
Time waits for no one
That's why can't wait on you

I'll find someone else and I hope you do too
But please don't come looking for me baby
'Cause you know that we're through

Time waits for no one
That's why can't wait on you
Time waits for no one
That's why can't wait on you
