Big Heart

Rodney Crowell

She's got a big heart and her own mind a deep love it's the str ong kind She's got them long legs and that soft skin she's got a big hea rt The way she moves through this old world is the way she moves m y soul Every room that she walks into comes alive With her head held high she digs down deep and struggles like w e all will But she makes it look so easy I could die She's got a big heart Big old tears fall down when she's unhappy Big old moon comes rising when she smiles With her hair of gold and eyes so blue they haunt you when you' re sleeping Sometimes I wake up laughin' right out loud She's got a big heart and her own mind sweet soul man she's so fine She'll live a long time she comes from a long line she's got a big heart Big heart she's got a big heart
