

Faith Is Mine

Rodney Crowell

There's no feelin' no better than this
There's no mountain so high I can't climb
There's no shortage of comfort and bliss
There's no reason I burned holes in my mind

I'm doin' fine
The faith is mine now

I've seen my troubles smokin' down on the track
My nose all bloody, taste the salt in my teeth
I spent my money but it's all comin' back
The water is muddy but it's drowned
And my field's under the [Incomprehensible]

The faith is mine now
The faith is mine
But I still got a long way to go

I've seen my future look back on my heart
Don't know the ending but I know where to start
My past is healin', it's alarmin' the fate
This time tomorrow, it could all be a race tumblin' by

The faith is mine now
The faith is mine
But I still got a long way to go

The faith is mine
But I'm still doin' time keepin' up my God
The faith is real
Or sometimes I feel like I work too hard
The faith is mine, yeah, the faith is mine

Yeah, faith is mine
But I'm still doin' time, it's a life long task
The faith is strong, I keep hangin' on
'Cause I know that I've only to ask

The faith is mine
Yeah, the faith is mine

There's no feeling no better I know
The skies are cloudy but the sun's gonna show
My arms are open and I got my feet on the sand
Angel of mercy take a hold of my hand

I'm doin' fine
The faith is mine now
The faith is mine
But I still got a long way to go

Faith is mine
But I still got a long way to go
The faith is mine
But I still got a long way to go

The faith is mine

Yeah, the faith is mine
The faith is mine
The faith is mine
