I put away fifteen grand doing one-

night stands mostly liquor stores and fillin' stations

Me and this peepin' Tom by the name of J.D. Swan and any number of his odd blood relations

This was armed robbery 1957 and mostly our getaways were clean Then I'd pay off the boys and bury my bread out on Highway 17

I had five kids and a wife with one dress and a yard full of cars that wouldn't running

My two oldest boys they were on to my noise they despised what their daddy done

But I did my thing the best I could maing plans by the light of day

And then night would fall and it was time to call and I was alw ays on my way

Now J.D. he was crazy and he was inbred he drank whiskey like i t was goin' out of style

You know I should have seen it coming the writing was on the wall he was getting just a little too loose and wild

Annd he made his mistake out on Airline Drive, you know those N orth Houston cops are quick

They blew a hole in J.D. the size of Dallas and put a lump on m y head with the brunt of a nightstick

You know 5-10 in Huntsville ain't no good times boys but I walk ed that line do you know what I mean

'Cause my mind was snug on that hole I dug out on Highway 17 I said my mind was snug on that hole I dug out on Highway 17

So I served my time only way I knew how thinking big and making plans $$

All about the way I was gonna change the world when I get my hands on that $15~\mathrm{grand}$

You know C.W. and Herschel my two oldest boys they took care of their momma and their little sisters the best way that they could

Dealing dimes and stealing hubcaps you know pretty soon they we re doing good

So I walked out those prison gates a free man on the first day of November 19 and $^{\prime}63$

I kissed my wife and I hugged my babies but they didn't seem the same to me

You know the boys looked on they were already grown it was writ ten across their eyes and their faces

I'm the perfect sample of a bad example gone forever from their graces

But baby six long years and a lot can change many miles beyond your wildest dreams

But a six-lane wide modern interstate ride out on Highway 17 Lord they sunk my ship 'neath a concrete strip out on Highway 1 7

Man they broke my back they built a concrete track out on Highw ay 17

Well, you know it ain't funny but they buried my money out on H ighway 17
