

Maybe Next Time

Rodney Crowell

I feel the same as you, I don't know what we're gonna do
We have got to be who we are
So we can't let it go too far

Time and place unknown so we can let our feelings show
Maybe he'll never know how long we've loved
Maybe she'll never know how strong it was
Maybe next time out we'll be ourselves
Maybe next time out won't be nobody else
Next time out we'll have our way
Till that day shall we say maybe next time

We'll meet again somehow in a place very far from now
Hurling caution into the stone, my love
Build a fire that will keep us warm enough

Maybe next time out we'll be alright
Maybe next time out we'll make it to the light
Next time out we'll have our way
Till that day shall we say maybe next time

Maybe next time out we'll be on top
Maybe next time out we'll never have to stop
Next time out we'll have it all
Till we do, here's to you, maybe next time
Till that day let's just say maybe next time
