When The Blue Hour Comes

Rodney Crowell

The good times are all gone The night keeps coming on so strong You can't hold on, no matter what you do Will there be someone who cares for you When the blue hour comes? When the blue hour comes?

And when your restless heart Tears your world apart And everywhere you turn It's falling down on you Will there be a light that shines for you?

When the blue hour comes for you If there's anything that you would have me do Just call on me and I'll be coming through I will always be there for you When the blue hour comes When the blue hour comes

Good times don't last forever Sometimes it's now or never Darling, reach out for me You know where I'll be I will always be there for you When the blue hour comes When the blue hour comes

When the blue hour comes for you If there's anything that you would have me do Just call on me and I'll be coming through I will always be there for you When the blue hour comes When the blue hour comes

I will always be there When the blue hour comes When the blue hour comes When the blue hour comes...
