

Blue Skies

Rökkurró

This is where it ends,
watching blue turn into black.
This isn't you,
this isn't you.

All you ever learned
but you wanted to forget.
Keep throwing stones,
keep throwing stones.

Disappearing dreams,
all is lost when you're awake.
It's so long since you've felt fear,
fear that made you take the first step.

Blue skies,
all your dreams are dying.
Blue skies,
come and bring them back to life.
Blue skies,
the day after the storm is brighter.
Blue skies,
this is all you wanted.
Bright lights
guide your way.

All your secret fears
that are hiding in your head,
now let them go.
Now let them go.

Just a fragile thought
is enough to turn the world.
All your hopes are holding on
for the chance to see a new life.

Blue skies,
all your dreams are dying.
Blue skies,
come and bring them back to life.
Blue skies,
the day after the storm is brighter.
Blue skies,
this is all you wanted.
Bright lights
guide your way.

Your hands,
holding so tight.
Your lungs,
breathing so loud

Blue skies,
all your dreams are dying.
Blue skies,
come and bring them back to life.
Blue skies,

the day after the storm is brighter.
Blue skies,
this is all you wanted.
Bright lights
guide your way.
Blue skies,
the feeling that you get is golden.
