

Going Strong

Roger Daltrey

All of me, can I get nearer love
Can't you see, I'm willing to try to Love it is, oh so near enough
It's all for sale, I'm willing to cry
Going strong Going strong Take, take it's me or nothing
Going strong
All of you, But how can I get enough
More I need, To satisfy Furthermore, never could mean a lot
Just tell me now, I wanna know why
Going strong. . . .
Love it is, But how can I mean a lot
More or less, To do or die Well there it is, Strange but true or not
You for me, For you to sigh
Going strong. . . .
