

Country Girl

Roger Miller

Met you my country girl you didn't have a thing
I fell in love I dressed you up, then I bought the ring
I was teaching you to love, you were leaning fine
Then one day you learned too much and it poisoned your sweet mind
Now you've gone and left me you're with somebody new
But I wonder if you told him I bought the clothes on you
When you two are dancin' and you whisper soft and sweet
I wonder if you'll tell him I bought the shoes on your feet
Now you've gone and left me you're with somebody new
But I wonder if you told him I bought the clothes on you
When you two are dancin' and you whisper soft and sweet
I wonder if you'll tell him I bought the shoes on your feet
