

Loving You Is Always On My Mind

Roger Miller

Travelling around and missing you gets hold (old)
Think about you almost all the time
Wishing I had your sweet hand to hold
Loving you is always on my mind

Loving you is all I'm living for
Ain't nobody 'bout to change my mind
For you have won my soul and my heart
Loving you is always on my mind

You're my friend when what I need is a friend
You're my loving when it's loving time
It's true so I'll just say it again
Loving you is always on my mind

You're my friend when what I need is a friend
You're my loving when it's loving time
It's true so I'll just say it again
Honey , loving you is always on my mind

Loving you is always on my mind
