

Reincarnation

Roger Miller

If I was a bird and you was a fish, what would we do?
I guess we'd wish for
Reincarnation, reincarnation
Wouldn't it be a sensation to come back too like reincarnation?

If I was a tree and you was a flower, what would we do?
I guess we'd wait for the power of
Reincarnation, reincarnation
Wouldn't it be a sensation to come back too like reincarnation?

I love you and don't you know I always will
You're a girl, I'm a boy
But suppose you were a rose
And I was a whip-poor-will

If I was a bird and you was a fish, what would we do?
I guess we'd wish for
Reincarnation, reincarnation
Wouldn't it be a sensation to come back too like reincarnation?

I love you and don't you know I always will
You're a girl, I'm a boy
But suppose you was a rose
And I was a Whippoorwill

If I was a bird and you was a fish, what would we do?
I guess we'd wish for
Reincarnation, reincarnation
Wouldn't it be a sensation to come back too like reincarnation?
