

Be My Gal (My Brightest Spark)

Roger Taylor

Be my partner
Be my pal
Be my gal

Be my rock
Be my friend
Till the end

You have become my Joan Of Arc
My fine design, my sleeping lion
The one who'll fight my demons in the dark
My brightest spark

You have brought down
My darkest fears, I lay awake, my hopes and tears
And you can break the blinds that bind my eyes
And ears

And you can slake the thirst that burns me in the night
The twists and turns, I'm yours to sooth, console
Heal the bruises
Make me whole

Be my partner
Would you be my pal
Would you be my gal

Be my rock
Be my friend
Till the end
